

Instructor, Carter Conrad

April 2006 - Current
DeliveredDATA, LLC

Lead Computer Forensics Investigator – President

Computer forensics services to private clients and law firms within the South Florida region. Scope of engagements include, but not limited to: Forensically sound examinations, evidence collection, password cracking, and expert consulting. Extensive, ongoing training related to legislation and computer science techniques. Consulting services including risk assessments and business continuity (BC/DR)

February 2007 - Current

Vigilar, Inc

Applied Computer Forensics/CCE Instructor & Security+ Instructor

Vigilar's Intense School Applied Computer Forensics course with curriculum including computer forensic techniques for locating, handling, and processing computer evidence. CCE Boot Camp prepares students for the CCE certification examination by teaching the necessary skills to recognize computer threats and how to investigate computer crime. CompTIA Security+ certification covering 17 aspects of Network Security including: Security principles, OSI, Cryptography, Disaster Recovery, and Computer Forensics. CompTIA Security+ validates knowledge of communication security, infrastructure security, cryptography, operational security, and general security concepts. It is an international, vendor-neutral certification.

January 2002 – April 2007

ChoicePoint, Inc.

Data Center Instructor/Technical Trainer - Learning & Development Team

Research technology for ChoicePoint's proprietary data services for public filings and other public record information data. Training for Public and Private Sector client companies case research, due diligence and documentation for investigations. Additional responsibilities include legal issues training and security awareness program. Extensive training and knowledge regarding legislation, including but not limited to: USA PATRIOT Act compliance, Sarbanes-Oxley, Fair Credit Reporting Act, Driver's Privacy Protection Act, and Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act.

April – November 2001

RHI Consulting

Business Development Manager

Responsible for technology & IT security projects, primarily with Public Sector clients, using Microsoft Windows

95/98/NT/W2K/XP, UNIX, Linux Operating Systems; Development Languages: VB, C, C++, VC++, C#, Java, XML, Access, SQL, Oracle, and MySQL

January 2000 - April 2001

SouthFloridaHotSpots, LLC

Chief Technical Officer

Regional Information Website – West Palm Beach, Florida.

March 1998 - December 1999

Staff Leasing, Inc

Business Development Manager

Business Development for new client companies, requiring extensive knowledge of Florida Worker's Comp codes, and knowledge of Loss Run Sheets and Experience Modifiers, additional expertise included: labor law and compliance, workers compensation legislation, state and federal unemployment compensation legislation, employer tax responsibilities, employee benefit programs, numerous payroll processes, coding, appropriate

NCCI WC classification, and sub-contractor eligibility

January 1992 - March 1998

American Sentry, Inc

Project Manager

Systems Design, working closely with Physical Security & Loss Prevention Directors, Engineers, Code

Enforcement and AHJ's (Authority Having Jurisdiction) for loss prevention, life safety, and personal protection.

Additional services included CCTV surveillance systems for security monitoring, access control systems, vehicle entry systems. Design of life safety systems, with plan review and approval from AHJ, required within scope of position, including extensive knowledge of NFPA 72 and 101. Numerous crime scene assessments

September 1985 – January 1992

CV Enterprises

Chief Security Officer

Estate Management, primarily for absentee property owners, involving physical security issues

Accomplishments

Featured Presenter for ChoicePoint Public Records Group at the World Investigator Conference, MGM Grand,

Las Vegas, Nevada - 2005

Certified Information Systems Security Professional (CISSP) Certification - 2006

International Society of Forensic Computer Examiner (ISFCE) Certified Computer Examiner (CCE)
Certification - 2006
Langevin Certified Technical Trainer – 2008

InfraGard (FBI) South Florida Chapter Member - 2008